1. Headquarters was aware before negotiations to broaden ~~VALUARIA~~ began, that they would be very exasperating to those conducting them. We had, however, hoped that the agreements reached in London would be sufficient to maintain harmony and a united front between the ~~VALUARIA~~ and ~~GRIFUS~~ representatives.
2. We were sorry to read in reference that such was not the case and that the negotiations were made more difficult by our ~~VALUARIA~~ colleagues. We wish to commend Brahm and Wenzel for their ~~VALUARIA~~ forbearance and for the firmness with which they managed to keep the broadening on a joint basis.
3. At the same time we wish to keep in mind, as we are sure Brahm and Wenzel have done, that our ~~VALUARIA~~ colleagues could not be and were not expected to be enthusiastic in carrying out the ~~GRIFUS~~ initiative for broadening and reorganization. While we regret certain of their actions, we feel they may be partly explained as arising out of the pressure and confusion which existed at times, and as being based in some cases perhaps on faulty information concerning, or misinterpretation of, our own activities in this connection.
